

WHAT IS TIME TRAVELERS?

Time Travelers is a free reciprocal membership network for historical museums, sites, and societies throughout the United States. The Missouri Historical Society created the program in 1998 so that members of historical institutions could receive exclusive benefits and privileges at museums and historical sites nationwide.

Currently, the Time Travelers program includes over 400 organizations in more than 45 states across the country. Members of these organizations can receive a variety of exclusive benefits and privileges, such as free admission, gift shop discounts, and much, much more. Time Travelers is a museum reciprocal program and if you are interested in receiving these benefits you must join one of the museums listed on this site.

ABOUT TIME TRAVELERS

Time Travelers is a reciprocal membership network for historical museums and societies throughout the US. The Missouri Historical Society (MHS) created the program in 1998 so that members of historical institutions could receive exclusive benefits and privileges at museums and historical sites nationwide. These benefits may include free or reduced admission, gift shop discounts, free parking, and much more.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can an individual join the Time Travelers program?

Only historical museums and societies can join the Time Travelers program. If an individual is interested in receiving program benefits at institutions across the country, they should become a member at one of the institutions in their area. That membership will in turn entitle them to benefits at the other participating institutions.

Where is there a list of all the Time Travelers participating institutions?

The most up-to-date list of participants is on our website, but you should call institutions ahead of visiting to confirm that the discounts listed are fully updated.

What if I have more questions about the Time Travelers program?

You can call MHS membership team at \(314\) 454-3100, email us at timetravelers@mohistory.org, or fill out our contact form.